

Contents

The University of Guyana in Brief / vii

Introduction / ix

Section 1: The Effects of COVID-19: Students' Perspectives / 1

Is Learning Really Student-Centred? The Experience of University
Students Studying Online during the COVID-19 Pandemic in Jamaica / 3

Stephen R. Wallder and Nardia J. Brown

---

Literature Review: The Impact of COVID-19 on Classroom
Assessment Practices / 22

Gerson Hakutumbulwa, Faustina Kashinaua Neshila and Tomas Shivolo

---

Section 2: Language and Literature / 51

Translanguaging Practices for Effective Instruction Across the Curriculum in Anglophone Caribbean Multilingual Classrooms / 53

Iris Hewitt-Bradshaw and Lynette Tyson-Noel

---

Shakespeare: Social Media, Authentic Assessments, and CAPE Literatures in English / 75

Scott Ting-A-Kee

---

Section 3: Student Learning and Teaching / 99

Impact of Social-Emotional Learning on Adolescents' Conflict
Resolution Skills / 101

Paula Smith

---

Challenges Faced by Student Teachers in Setting Reinforcement
Assessment Tasks While on SBS / 126

Renate Olga Shikwaya and Faustina Kashinauua Neshila

---

Addressing the Challenges of Academic Integrity in Online Assessments Higher Education / 145

Amuthenu Silohenda Hileni, Ndahafa Lusia Nghitotelwa and Tomas Shivolo

---

Notes on Contributors / 160

CoETaL: A Brief / 166

CoETaL Multidisciplinary Journal of Teaching and Learning / 170